

Supplementary Provisions of Expedition

(The implementation of the 2010 Fall)

In order to promote the organization of expedition, improve team quality and avoid waste of resources, China Tibet Mountaineering Association to do the following additional provisions for future permit applications, size, reception :

1. The expedition must apply the climbing permits in one month before. Application must provide the expedition's schedule, service requirements and real information of the member (Including: name, sex, birth date, nationality, occupation and passport copy).
2. If clients required applying visas in their own country, must mention in one month before
3. The team size for three major peaks (Mt.Qomolangma, Cho-oyu and Shishabangma) must be above 5pax (can contain Nepalese staff), No requirement for other peaks.
4. The ratio for clients with Nepalese staff should be of 6:4, over the proportion of Nepalese we'll charge as clients' cost.
5. The team can not add new member after the procedure declaration. If increased the team size must be above 5pax.
6. After the team entry to be in accordance with the approval of the agenda, can not arbitrarily change the itinerary.
7. Climbers in principle limit the age between 18-60 years of age. If climbers' age are not within the provisions of range, must provide proof to the special health-related applications.
8. Beyond the original services we'll charge the extra fee according to the actual situation.

China Tibet Mountaineering Association